City of Riverside Public Library Brings Book Lockers to Seven Locations

Ribbon-cutting ceremony scheduled for 10:30 a.m. Thursday, Feb. 27 at the Main Library

RIVERSIDE, Calif. – Picking up a book from the Riverside Public Library has never been easier with the creation of book lockers at seven locations around the city. A ribbon-cutting ceremony to celebrate this new option is scheduled for 10:30 a.m. Thursday (2/27) at the Main Library, 3900 Mission Inn Avenue.

The process is simple:

- 1) Select a book from the online catalog.
- 2) Select a locker at the facility where you want to pick up the book.
- 3) Wait for an email or text that your book is ready for pick-up.
- 4) Use your library card number to retrieve your book from the locker.
